Successful candidates will have primary duties in leading and administering our highly successful leadership preparation program, the Leadership Initiative for Tomorrow's Schools (LIFTS). Faculty in this area demonstrate a commitment to creating a collegial academic environment characterized by equity, diversity, inclusion, and social justice.

Responsibilities include:

- Serving as director of the LIFTS program, which includes both the school building (SBL) and school district leadership (SDL) certifications in Educational Administration.
- Contributing to ongoing development and evaluation of the EdD and LIFTS.
- Advising students in the LIFTS program and providing supervision for internship experiences.
- Completing all state and university documentation for program development, program provision, program evaluation, and accreditation.
- Working with partners on continual program development and provision.
- Teaching courses in the LIFTS program during the fall, spring, and summer semesters.
- Collaborating with faculty members across the department, Graduate School of Education, and the UB Campus.
- Developing and managing relationships with regional school and district leaders and program alumni
- Coordinating the LIFTS Oral Defense process and events for faculty staff and alumni.

Appointments are a twelve-month position beginning in the Fall 2024. For full consideration, please submit your materials by October 30, 2023. The position will remain open until filled.

Outstanding Benefits Package

Working at UB comes with benefits that exceed salary alone. There are personal rewards including comprehensive health and retirement plan options. We also focus on creating and sustaining a healthy mix of work, personal and academic pursuit - all in an effort to support your work-life effectiveness.
