Job Description

Brief Description of PSU/School/Dept

Portland State University, with an enrollment of approximately 30,000 students, serves the Portland metropolitan area, which is a vibrant and growing community with a culturally diverse population of 1.5 million people. Portland State University's motto is "Let knowledge serve the city", which highlights the campus as a national leader in university-community partnerships.

"Leading, Learning, Life Changing" is the motto of the Graduate School of Education, Oregon's largest and most comprehensive school of education. We are leading through applying best practices to educator preparation and preparing all of our graduates to understand and apply best practices in their work. In addition, we are leading through the research and other scholarly work of our faculty and students that contributes to the knowledge base in our field.

The GSE is a learning community. Faculty, educator candidates, and our practitioner partners are working and learning together to improve education for all students. Through rigorous assessment and reflection, we seek to continuously improve our programs.

Most importantly, we realize the tremendous influence of educators and how they can change the lives of their students. Through our programs we seek to prepare our educator candidates so they can positively and maximally influence the lives of their students.

Ultimately, we seek to prepare all educators and students to contribute to improving the quality of life in Oregon and throughout the world and to creating a more just and democratic society.

Position Summary

The Graduate School of Education at Portland State University (PSU) is seeking a 1.0 FTE 9-month, tenure track faculty appointment, at the Assistant or Associate Professor rank in the Department of Special Education, starting September 16, 2018.

The faculty member will teach courses in special education, pursue external funding, manage existing grant projects, and collaborate in program development and leadership. - b) co-direct the Think College Inclusion Oregon (TCIO) Project (<https://thinkcollege.net/>),
- c) teach courses as assigned by the Department Chair;
- d) maintain an active research and publication agenda;
- e) seek external grants funding in personnel preparation and post-secondary education for students with disabilities; and
- f) provide advising, mentorship and support for graduate students.

Primary Activity Instructional Minimum Qualifications

- An earned doctorate in Special Education or a related field.
- Committed to inclusive education, employment, and community living
- Committed to working with culturally, linguistically and socio-economically diverse students and underserved student populations.
- Experience in inclusive secondary special education and transition and/or post-secondary inclusive
