The Department of Curriculum and Teaching in Hunter College's School of Education seek candidates for a tenure track, open rank position (Asst, Assoc, or Full Prof.) in Mathematics Education effective Fall 2018.

Duties associated with this position include: 1) teaching graduate and undergraduate courses in Childhood Education Programs, 2) engaging in research, scholarly writing and grant work, 3) serving on program, department, school, college and university committees, where appropriate, and 4) student advisement.

Hunter is committed to active engagement with students and the community at large, and embraces equity, inclusiveness, and global awareness in all dimensions of our work.

QUALIFICATIONS

Ph.D. degree or equivalent Doctoral Degree in Mathematics Education or in a related field. Evidence of successful teaching and demonstrated record of scholarship.

The preferred candidate will have a strong research agenda that relates to important questions about mathematics education, learning, teaching, or mathematics teacher education. Candidates with 3+ years of teaching experience in K-6 grades are highly desirable. The preferred candidate will also be able to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in mathematics education, as well as engaging in collaboration with local schools. As a public urban institution, our curriculum, scholarship and school partnerships reflect a commitment to equity, advocacy and educating a diverse student population. We value candidates who have a demonstrated commitment to work in multicultural and urban settings.

COMPENSATION

CUNY offers faculty a competitive compensation and benefits package covering health insurance, pension and retirement benefits, paid parental leave, and savings programs. We also provide mentoring and support for research, scholarship, and publication as part of our commitment to ongoing faculty professional development.
