Job Description

Lake Superior State University seeks applicants for a one-year term contract with possible renewal for an Assistant Professor position in the School of Education to begin August 2019.

Responsibilities:

The position requires the ability to teach undergraduate courses to pre-service elementary and secondary school teachers, particularly in the areas of science, social studies, and technology. Professional and scholarly activities are expected. Additional responsibilities of the position include recruiting and advising students, marketing programs, course and program development/assessment, and university/community service. Rank and salary will be commensurate with qualifications, expertise, and experience. LSSU provides an excellent fringe benefits package.

Qualifications:

Doctorate preferred. Masters required.

A minimum of three years teaching experience in K-12 or equivalent settings is required. Interest in Great Lakes education a plus.

LSSU desires candidates with a strong interest in undergraduate education and program development with the ability to use technology effectively in teaching and learning through face-to-face, distance learning (televised and web-based), and blended modes. Applicants should be strongly committed to excellence in teaching and advising and to working effectively in a multicultural environment that fosters diversity. They should also have the ability to work collaboratively within the school as well as throughout the community.

EEO/AA Policy

Lake Superior State University recognizes not only a legal obligation but also a moral and educational responsibility to provide equal employment opportunity both for the sake of fair employment practices and for the sake of meeting the educational needs of its particular student population.
