is required. Candidates should also have a demonstrated record of teaching elementary reading in the K-6 public setting. A teaching load of 4 sections per semester is expected in support of the Reading Endorsement, including the following courses: Children's Literature, Diagnostic Reading, and Elementary Reading Instruction. Additional responsibilities include an active professional development agenda, college service, academic mentoring and advising.

Additional Information

Flagler College is an independent, co-educational college with an enrollment of 2,500 students. The College is located in historic St. Augustine, Florida, approximately 35 miles south of Jacksonville and 55 miles north of Daytona Beach. Salary and benefits are competitive and commensurate with experience. Application materials should be submitted electronically via the College website.

A complete application will include a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, a brief statement of teaching philosophy, unofficial copies of transcripts, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and contact information for three references. For full consideration, completed applications and supporting materials must be received no later than January 15, 2019.

EEO/AA Policy

Flagler College shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR §§ 60-1.4(a), 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Moreover, these regulations require that covered prime contractors and subcontractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, protected veteran status or disability.
