Job Description

The Department of Human Relations in the College of Arts and Sciences at The University of Oklahoma (OU) invites applications for a Renewable Term Lecturer on a 3-year term for its Inclusive Leadership online program, beginning the Spring 2021 semester. The teaching expectation is four (4) courses in the Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters (4:4:4).

Our mission for Inclusive Leadership online program is to prepare future leaders for our diverse world through educating professionals in the field. Of particular interest at the Department of Human Relations are candidates who espouse diversity and commitment to develop leadership competencies for organization. Responsibilities include teaching master's courses offered online and advising online graduate students. The new online program aims to reach a wide student population across the nation who are interested to gain more education while working in a different field. This student population is eager to excel and looking for a dynamic rigorous online master program to improve their career and livelihood.
