Job Description

The Graduate School of Education (GSE) at the University at Buffalo (UB) is seeking an Assistant Director of the UB Teacher Residency Program (UBTR). The UBTR is an accelerated, innovative, one-year initial teacher certification program for individuals who are committed to teaching in Buffalo's public schools. The incumbent will work collaboratively with the Director, university faculty, partner districts, mentor teachers, school leaders, and other stakeholders in preparing and supporting a diverse, learner-ready teaching force.

Responsibilities will include:

- * Providing support for mentor-resident pairs.
- * Facilitation of professional learning communities (both virtual and face-to-face).
- * Expansion of the UBTR Consortium.
- * Leadership of instructional mentoring and induction support programs.
