The Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences is creating an environment that affirms community across all dimensions. We particularly welcome applicants who can contribute to such an environment through their scholarship, teaching, mentoring, and professional service. If an accommodation due to a disability is needed to apply for this position, please call 352-392-2477 or the Florida Relay System at 800-955-8771 (TDD) or visit Accessibility at UF.

The Opportunity:

This full-time permanent status accruing Extension Agent will work jointly for UF/IFAS Extension and Clay County Board of County Commissioners. The successful candidate will lead through designing, implementing, and evaluating community-based education programs that improve financial literacy and help individuals, families, and communities improve their economic well-being (95%). Educational programs may be targeted to help individuals and families obtain skills to own or rent a home, prevent foreclosure, maintain their home, or take a long-term view of their financial futures. Additionally, financial management programs will be targeted to nonprofit organizations to help increase capacity. At least 5% of the candidate's time will be devoted to 4-H Youth Development workforce readiness programs.

We are looking for candidates with academic and people skills who work well in teams, honor their commitments, and innovate in a rapidly changing world. The candidate will use an understanding of financial management, quality of life, and community stability to lead an educational program that empowers people to adopt healthy financial behavior, prevent financial stress, and achieve long-term social and economic success. This role provides the opportunity to positively impact the Clay County community in helping to shape future generations.

The candidate will be able to:

- Plan, develop, teach, and evaluate community-based education programs to help people acquire the knowledge and skills to build financial security.
- Provide Housing and Urban Development (HUD) housing counseling services and education workshops in coordination with Clay County Community Services department and Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program.
- Provide nonprofit financial management education programs in coordination with Clay County Grants department.
- Market education programs to reach a broad range of populations.
- Employ programmatic strategies to ensure the success of varied populations.
