Job Description

The Kean University Child Care and Development Center is a nationally accredited child care center inspired by the Reggio Emilia Approach, a philosophy that emphasizes hands-on discovery-based learning. The Teacher's primary role is to reach every learner by respecting their learning process and guiding their interests through engaging learning experiences and interactions.

Under the supervision of the Director of the Child Care and Development Center, the Teacher is responsible for the general supervision and management of children between the ages of two and a half to five in the full day program and children up to twelve years old in the aftercare program. The Teacher plans and implements a program of developmentally appropriate experiences for children, demonstrating best early childhood practices. They supervise assistants and student teachers, communicate with parents, attend professional development events to maintain professional competency and perform related work as required. All practices must be consistent with guidelines put
