Position description

The Berkeley School of Education (BSE) at the University of California, Berkeley is home to a diverse group of students and faculty joined by their common interests in understanding and improving the complex world of education.

Our students come here with a wealth of academic talent and professional experience, driven to make an impact as researchers, professional educators, leaders and innovators.

Students and faculty tackle difficult questions—from how children, youth and adults learn, inside and outside classrooms; to how schools, communities and societies advance the educational and life chances of those they educate. In the process, students develop the necessary knowledge, skills, tools and experiences to handle those challenges.

We are committed to providing and cultivating the very best in educational scholarship, innovation and professional leadership.

The BSE is generating an applicant pool of qualified temporary, part-time, non-tenure track Lecturers to teach in the MA/PhD Programs. Screening of applicants begins immediately and continues as needed. This is a pool recruitment that will be used to fill openings that occur during the Spring 2025, Summer 2025, Fall 2025 and Spring 2026 semesters. The number of positions varies from semester to semester depending on program and departmental needs.
