foster collaborative partnerships with school districts.

For over 60 years, Kennesaw State University has been recognized for its entrepreneurial spirit and strong sense of community. KSU is located just north of Atlanta and spans two vibrant metro-Atlanta campuses in Kennesaw and Marietta. One of Georgia's largest universities, KSU serves nearly 48,000 students across a wide range of undergraduate, graduate, and expanding doctoral programs.

With high-impact research initiatives and NCAA Division I athletics, Kennesaw State University attracts students from across the region and around the world. As a member of the University System of Georgia and a Carnegie-designated R2 doctoral research institution, KSU is committed to becoming a world-class academic leader by broadening its academic and research missions and expanding its impact locally, regionally, and nationally.

The Dean is expected to take office on January 1, 2026.

Kennesaw State University has retained Buffkin/Baker, a national executive search firm, to assist the Dean of the Clarice C. and Leland H. Bagwell College of Education Search Committee in its identification and review of candidates.
